

Isaiah 40:31 is a Bible verse that promises strength and hope to those who are weary and struggling.

Meaning

The verse promises a renewed strength that is comparable to an eagle's ability to mount up and fly without tiring. It also conveys that those who wait on the Lord will not faint.

Interpretation

The verse can be a source of comfort and strength for those who are going through difficult times. It reminds people that they are not alone and that there is a source of hope and strength to turn to.

Waiting

Waiting on the Lord is not about being idle, but rather active, in positive anticipation of what will happen next.

Eagle

The eagle can wait for the right wind to lock its wings and soar.
